

class work and two hours of homework.

Part II: Appendices, Vocabulary. This second part contains paradigms, summaries of syntax, and vocabulary found in Lessons 1-78, plus all the material usually included in traditional first-year texts. As such it provides a handy reference grammar for the student. Lessons 70-78 cite references to the Appendices to acquaint the student with their use and structure.

NOTICE

The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation has made available a grant for a continuing post-doctoral fellowship program to assist scholars wishing to conduct research in the manuscript collections in the Vatican Film Library at Saint Louis University. The program is designed to provide travel expenses and a reasonable per diem to scholars with well defined research projects for periods of research in the Vatican Film Library ranging from two weeks to eight weeks, including periods of summer research.

Projects proposed for support can be in such areas as classical languages and classical and vernacular literature, paleography, scriptural and patristic studies, history, philosophy and sciences in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance, the history of music, the history of manuscript illumination, the history of mathematics and technology, the history of theology and liturgy, and the history of Roman and canon law and political theory.

Interested scholars are asked to write for further information to the Andrew W. Mellon Fellowship Program, Vatican Film Library, Pius XII Memorial Library, Saint Louis University, 3655 W. Pine, St. Louis, MO 63108.
